TOSCANA – This region is known as the epitome of perfect wine country, boasting some of Italy's most famous appellations.

2011 Barone Ricasoli Torre della Trappola, Brunello di Montalcino 122.

Classic color with garnet hues. The nose shows ripe red fruit, cherry, spicy notes of liquorice and chocolate. The mouth is intense with well-balanced tannins.

PIEMONTE – This region is home to more DOCG wines than any other Italian region. Named for its location at the “foot of the mountain”, sits an ideal region for a number of indigenous grape varieties.

2013 Prunotto, Roero Arneis

59/14-BTG

Crisp, dry white wine with hints of pear and apricot and pineapple enveloped by an intense floral fragrance featuring lime and broom. Silky smooth.

UMBRIA – The lush region known as “Italy's green heart”. Umbria's winemaking history can be traced back to the Benedictine monks, who were the first to plant vineyards in the calcareous sandy soil that extends over much of the region.

2014 Cervaro della Sala, Antinori Chardonnay

Luminous yellow in color with greenish highlights. The nose shows notes of chamomile, flint, and tropical fruit. The palate is mineral and the vibrant flavors fuse, with a perfect elegance, with the buttery notes and the light touches of vanilla.
